First Responder Appreciation at Culvers

This is the second time Culver's has partnered with the Pilot Club of Naples to show appreciation for those who are always ready to respond in an emergency. Culver's will provide 1 free value basket to all First Responders with identification all day at the Immokalee Road location Saturday, March 12th

The Pilot Club of Naples members will greet everyone from 1 to 4 and get each First Responder to sign the signature board of appreciation. We need all our members to join the fun.

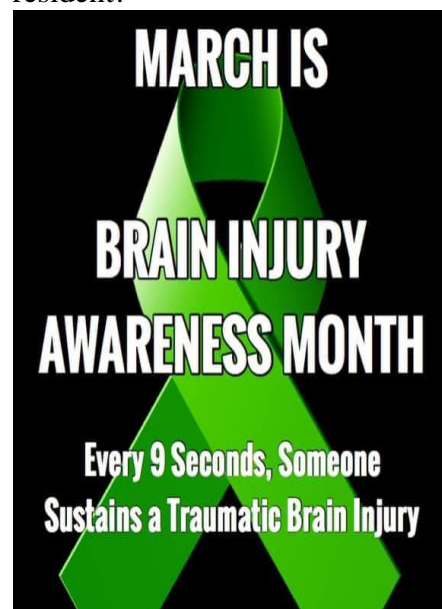

Thank you Culver's.

Connie Moore is coming to our March meeting. Connie served as Pilot International President and is now living in Naples!

This photo was taken when Connie visited our club with her husband a few years ago.

Also coming to our March meeting is the Florida District Governor, Charlotte Edenfield. It is truly an honor for these very important people to visit our club. Don't miss the March meeting to hear what they have to say to us. This is a perfect time to bring someone to see what Pilot is about. You may see an Anchor or even a Pilot Scholarship House resident!

Pilot Williams House. Gainesville

Okay, everything is going well in the house, midterms are coming up in these coming weeks so everyone is studying up right now. Everything with the house is fine, we bought a new mop and are using someone's personal vacuum for the time being to clean parts of the house. As for graduates, Christian and Stephen are the only ones graduating this semester I believe and we didn't receive any new residents this semester. For the video, I can ask Owen if he can help, when would you like the video due by?

Anchors met at Rotary Park in Cape Coral to organize our volunteers for the Burrowing Owl Festival February 26. Cape Coral Friends of Wildlife presented fascinating information about their volunteer work in our community. Along with CC Rotary Club and various other vendors, Anchors helped with parking, tours, wildlife exhibits and enjoyed helping our community earn about our unique wildlife and environment. More than 2,500 people attended and a silent auction raised $8,000+. This was fun and very rewarding work.

In addition, Anchors are completing many scholarship and award applications. We have eight graduating members! Before we "let them go", we are planning a EachOneBringOne initiative; a membership recruitment celebration March 31. More information to come for this.

Anchors are also busy updating our photo album and scrap book to present at the Naples Pilot Club meeting in March.

Spring Break is in March; Anchors are looking forward to this benchmark; then quarter 4-the grand finale begins. May the Luck of the Irish be with you all! Thank you for your support of our Anchor Club.

Anchor Convention will go virtual in March!

Pilot Scholarship House Foundation, Florida District, Inc.
(PSHF) provides a “home away from home” for college students in Florida.

PSHF currently sponsors.

One scholarship house at Florida State University

Two houses at the University of Florida

One house at Florida Gulf Coast University

The foundation is currently raising funds for a 5th house at Florida Gulf Coast University which will host 17 young women. Projected completion and opening are planned in 2022.

Each Pilot Scholarship House is home to 16 to 23 students and is supervised by a house manager who is an upperclassman. The students elect officers each semester to run the houses. In this cooperative living arrangement, residents take turns planning meals, shopping, cooking and cleaning up after the nightly group dinners.

This rent-free housing saves each student approximately $13,000 each year. The budgeted cost of food and utilities is shared among the residents, with an average house services bill per student of approximately $950 per semester. PSHF assists 77 students toward their goal of a college education annually.
